HAWTHORN BOOKS · Publishers

This is the second of a series of indexes which finally will appear as Volume 150 of THE TWENTIETH CENTURY ENCYCLOPEDIA OF CATHOLICISM. The first thirty-two volumes issued are here included in one cumulated index. Interim indexes will be issued for each group of twenty-four volumes and a final cumulative index will appear as Volume 150 of the series.

The arrangement of this index is alphabetico-specific; that is, the whole is arranged in one alphabetic order, and the entries are always made as specific as possible. The user, therefore, should always use a "dictionary" approach in seeking information. For examples, discussion of Baptism will be found directly under Baptism and not under Sacraments; individual Church Fathers are entered under their names and are not collected under the heading Fathers of the Church. Volume is separated from page(s) by a colon: inclusive paging is always given when a discussion goes beyond one page—this is indicated by a hyphen, thus: 6:20-22.

Cross references are used to connect related headings. See also references are always made from general to particular, not vice versa. Reading the modifications under the heading may also suggest related material. In order to make the final index as serviceable as possible, librarians and other users of the index are asked to make suggestions and criticisms. Comments on the adequacy of the cross references and on the possible use of "form" subject headings will be especially welcome.

Edited by HENRI DANIEL-ROPS of the Académie Française

General Editor of the English Language Edition: LANCELOT C. SHEPPARD

*American Consulting Editor and Chief of Consultants:
CELESTINE LUKE, F.S.C., S.T.D., of Manhattan College*

"A NEW means of conveying religious culture today . . . one which should bring Catholics much spiritual joy."

—L'OSSERVATORE ROMANO

"All librarians will be interested in this monumental work . . . and there should be a copy of it in every rectory and parish."

—THE CATHOLIC REVIEW SERVICE

". . . an auspicious feat in Catholic publishing . . . a source of understanding and inspiration for all intelligent readers."

—AMERICA

"All these books are useful and interesting for information and reference . . . they are very well written."

—THE CATHOLIC NEWS, N. Y.

"School, college, and parish libraries will probably want to subscribe to this series . . . a way of acquiring a large measure of Christian culture."—D. Bernard Theall, O.S.B., NC FEATURES

". . . a new kind of encyclopedia. This monumental work has taken on the task of confronting the ancient Faith with the full scope of modern research in every field of knowledge."

—THE SIGN

". . . exceptional stature and value . . . excellently printed and bound . . . a series not only instructive but handsome as well."

—THE CATHOLIC TRANSCRIPT

". . . more for the average reader, and answers virtually all of the questions that are likely to occur to him, but, if one is to judge from the first volumes, will most probably succeed in interesting his learned colleagues as well."—THE BOSTON PILOT

"An enterprise of great scope in the intellectual and spiritual life of contemporary Catholicism."

—THE SATURDAY REVIEW

"This series is such that, having nourished the intelligence, it will also move the heart, and lead its readers to prayer."

—C. C. MARTINDALE, S.J.

What the Critics have been saying about individual volumes in

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY ENCYCLOPEDIA OF CATHOLICISM

WHAT IS THE BIBLE? by Henri Daniel-Rops

"A wealth of information and inspirational material in a manner noteworthy for its extreme clarity and intelligent order. A scholarly and exceptional book . . . should be on the shelves of public and school libraries . . . a handy introduction or refresher for all interested in the Bible itself, as well as the historical and critical problems related to it."—VIRGINIA KIRKUS

"Excellent preparation of the daily reading of the inspired Word of God . . . His considerations will prove stimulating and rewarding."—MESSENGER OF THE SACRED HEART

WHAT IS FAITH? by Eugène Joly

"Joly writes with a sense of profound compassion and understanding for many moderns who have lost their sense of spiritual direction. Alive with intellectuality and spirituality attuned to the souls of men today."—THE SIGN

"Outstanding in broadness of outlook and fit for enclosure in the busiest schedules of educators. Its modernity, universal charity, beauty of composition, lucidity, compactness and clear intelligence, along with its appreciation of the mysteries of the Catholic faith, its thoughtful approach to these mysteries, show a zeal that desires to beckon to all readers."—NCEA NEWS

WHAT IS A SAINT? by Jacques Douillet

"Very pleasing reading. A great deal of solid substantial dogma and historical information to answer the questions of many Catholics."—CATHOLIC FREE PRESS

"This simple little book will be heartening to those who love their neighbor without guile."—THE BROOKLYN TABLET

WHO IS THE DEVIL? by Nicolas Corte

"Well balanced. Msgr. Corte makes a strong case for the devil and backs up his assertions with facts that cannot be dismissed as illusory."—SPONSA REGIS

"Has the exact scholarship, clear argument and awareness of the contemporary spiritual climate which are all alike necessary in any serious essay in Christian apologetics."—LONDON TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

THE ORIGINS OF MAN by Nicolas Corte

"There is such a wealth of detailed information to be found in the pages of this book that one is inclined to be amazed at the erudition and great syncretic ability of the author. The appearance of this book, and of the others of the series should be heart-warming for those Catholics of good intellectual stature who are seeking the understandings underlying their divine gift of faith. Cannot be too highly recommended."—EMMANUEL

". . . takes an important question and analyzes it facilely and lucidly from all points of view."—PROVIDENCE VISITOR

THE GOD OF REASON by Regis Jolivet

"From the first to the last sentence, highly commendable work."—PADRE

BIBLICAL CRITICISM by Jean Steinmann

"A book that could well take its place in parish libraries of the Episcopal Church. Is definitely readable—fluent."—THE LIVING CHURCH

"An excellent book."—SPONSA REGIS

HISTORY OF THE MASS by François Amiot

"An excellent and rewarding study."—CATHOLIC WEEKLY

"Probably the best short book on the Roman Mass currently available."—THE LIVING CHURCH

WHAT IS THE TRINITY? by Abbé Bernard Piault

"Abbé Piault is no dry-as-dust theologian. He makes use of the sublime mystery of the Godhead to point out some inspiring lessons. Written by one in an excellent position to treat of this subject."—REGISTER

THE PAPACY by Wladimir D'Ormesson

"Leaves little to be desired. The wonder is that he has intelligently compressed so vast a subject into space so minute. He succeeds in being brief without becoming obscure."—THE BROOKLYN TABLET

PSYCHICAL PHENOMENA by Reginald Omez, O.P.

"A very accurate and objective history of extraordinary phenomena in modern psychology."—RECORD

"A valuable addition to the literature of this field. It is particularly significant as a volume in the encyclopedia. It is perhaps as much recognition of parapsychology as has been given by a church authority among any of the major religions, and in this respect I think represents an important step. Also, it is most probable that this volume will answer many questions for Catholic readers who have taken an interest in parapsychology and have had questions about its relation to their faith."—J. B. RHINE, Duke University

WHAT IS LIFE? by René Biot

"... explained clearly and intelligibly. Biot impresses the reader. If all the volumes of the new encyclopedia accomplish as much as this one has in its contribution to the explanation of the nature of man, the series will certainly be eminently successful."—CATHOLIC REVIEW SERVICE

ST. PAUL AND HIS MESSAGE by Amedée Brunot, S.C.J.

"A clear and well-developed account of the main arguments of the Pauline Epistles."—TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

THE RELIGION OF ISRAEL by Albert Gélín

"The Jewish student will be enlightened about the Christian approach to the Bible."—DETROIT JEWISH NEWS

"Concise, authoritative, and handsomely turned out."—THE PILOT

"One can hardly do better for a brief discussion of the religious attitudes and beliefs of God's chosen people than have recourse to The Religion of Israel. An acknowledged expert writing about a spellbinding subject."—BEST SELLERS

IS THEOLOGY A SCIENCE? by M. D. Chenu, O.P.

"Questions, likely to be uppermost in the popular mind, receive accurate and adequate answers in this volume."—CATHOLIC HOME MESSENGER

"A thrilling survey of problems and answers which engage the true theologian. Each successive volume of this major enterprise confirms our anticipation that the entire work series will meet with success."—BEST SELLERS

WHAT IS A PRIEST? by Joseph Lécuyer

"A minor masterpiece. Distinguished piece of writing. Père Lécuyer has selected the most interesting, stimulating and apt illustrations for the historical, and to a degree apologetical, survey of the institution and development of Holy Orders."—WAY OF ST. FRANCIS

"A well-documented but concise treatise in very readable form. The reader will find the description of the origin and development of the various orders very informative but not tedious. Will supply the reader with a more sound intellectual basis for holding and teaching the celibacy of the priesthood and the wide sharing of the laity in priestly participation in the Sacrifice of the Mass."—CATHOLIC REVIEW SERVICE

"An eloquent book. Surcharged with illuminations and enthusiasm."—BEST SELLERS

HERESIES AND HERETICS by Msgr. Léon Cristiani

"A useful book for your library—a good book for reference."—WAY OF ST. FRANCIS

"Valuable summaries of theological errors, ancient and modern."
—BEST SELLERS

WHY WE BELIEVE by Msgr. Léon Cristiani

"So well written that once you pick it up, you will not want to put it down."—THE CATHOLIC WORLD

"Valuable insights and observations."—BEST SELLERS

THE CATHOLIC SPIRIT by André Retif, S.J.

"Shows scholarship without appearing 'scholarly.' Invites the reader to return for fuller appreciation. The Twentieth Century Encyclopedia of Catholicism does English readers a service in making this book available for mature, thinking Catholics."—
THE PROVIDENCE VISITOR

"A thorough study of the theological meaning of the word 'Catholic.'

"An interesting and rewarding theological work. A significant addition to the Encyclopedia."—ADVENT

About

HENRI DANIEL-ROPS

Editor-in-Chief of the Twentieth Century Encyclopedia of Catholicism

HENRI DANIEL-ROPS was born Henri Jules Charles Petiot, January 19, 1901, at Épinal (Vosges), France, the grandson of peasants and the son of Colonel Charles Petiot, an artillery officer, and Odile Gropserrin. A dark-haired, slender serious student, he majored simultaneously in law, geography and history at the University of Grenoble, winning the equivalent of a Master's degree in each subject and gaining his "agrégation" (slightly higher than a Ph.D.) from the University of Lyons before he was twenty-one. A year later he received his "habilitation," teaching as a "professeur agrégé" at the University. He subsequently taught history at the lycée at Charbéry, then taught at Amiens, and from 1930 until he retired from teaching in 1945, he was a professor at Neuilly. He adopted the nom de plume of Daniel-Rops for his first book—a volume of essays published in 1926—and has used it for all of his prolific writings. His more than seventy books include twenty novels, and the other writings are historical studies, works in the arts and sciences, poetry, and children's books. His writings have brought him many honors, including election to the Académie Française in 1955, the youngest member at the time. Other honors include Commander of the Order of Saint Gregory the Great in 1949 (conferred by Pope Pius XII, who was an ardent reader of his works) and the Grand Cross of that order conferred by Pope John XXIII; Grand Officer of the Order of Christ (Portugal); Knight of the Legion of Honor; winner of the Académie Française Grand Prix de la Littérature as well as its Prix Paul Flat and Prix Alfred Née. He holds honorary degrees from many institutions of higher learning including the Université de Montréal, Montreal, Canada. In addition to his writing, he lectures weekly and answers up to twenty letters daily from people who write with problems. A painstaking workman in his writing, he researches with fine-tooth-comb care and has a library at his home, Eau Vive, at Tresserve (Savoy) of more than 10,000 volumes. His greatest success was Jesus and His Times (Dutton, 1954) which took him three years to write, working daily from 7 A.M. to 1 P.M., his door shut and telephone disconnected. The work was translated into fourteen languages and has sold more than a half-million copies. He is a regular contributor to Revue des Deux Mondes, Nouvelle Revue Française, La France Catholique, Témoignage Chrétien, and La Bataille, as well as the editor of four series of books, including The Twentieth Century Encyclopedia of Catholicism (which includes his What is the Bible?). He contributes to various newspapers, edits a popular monthly, Ecclesia, and publishes an intellectual quarterly. His intensity of feeling for humanity was mirrored in the three years of research alone he spent preparing to write Histoire Sainte published in English both as Sacred History and Israel and the Ancient World (Longmans, Green, 1949). It was a work inspired by the Nazi libels against the Jews, and he felt he was "working against time to disabuse the world of these calumnies." Hardly had the work been set in type and 14,000 copies printed when the Gestapo raided the publisher's plant and destroyed the book plates. They failed to find the finished books, however, and the work was reset and reprinted after the war. Other of his books published in English are: Misted Mirror (Knopf, New York, 1931), Two Men in Me (Rockwell, Chicago, 1931), The Poor and Ourselves (Burns, Oates, London, 1938), Flaming Sword (Cassell, London, 1941), Death, Where Is Thy Victory? (Cassell, London, 1946), Where Angels Pass (Cassell, London, 1950), Saint Paul: Apostle of Nations (Fides, Chicago, 1953), Book of Books (Kenedy, New York, 1956), Book of Life (Kenedy, New York, 1956), Cathedral and Crusade (Dutton, New York, 1957), This is the Mass (Hawthorn, 1958), The Book of Mary (Hawthorn, 1960), Monsieur Vincent (Hawthorn, 1961), Daily Life in the Time of Jesus (Hawthorn, 1962) and The Book of Joseph (Hawthorn, 1963). In 1923 he was married to Madelaine Bouvier and they have an adopted son, Francis. When not occupied with his writing, he works around his garden and makes up stories to tell to his god-daughter, but, he says: "I believe I would die if I could no longer write."

for the most distinguished contribution to Catholic publishing in 1958*

ACCLAIMED as the greatest source of Catholic knowledge ever assembled, THE TWENTIETH CENTURY ENCYCLOPEDIA OF CATHOLICISM contains everything anyone would want to know on any subject involving Catholicism. Under the scholarly direction of the distinguished French Academician, Henri Daniel-Rops, the leading Catholic authorities of our time are producing 150 volumes comprising the unique monument to Catholic scholarship and faith that is THE TWENTIETH CENTURY ENCYCLOPEDIA OF CATHOLICISM. The series is divided into sixteen sub-series on such general topics as belief, faith, the nature of man, the Bible, etc. Each volume covers a specific subject under these headings, and is complete in itself with its own bibliography and scholarly annotations.

Subscription Plan: Individual volumes in the series sell for $3.50 each. A minimum saving of $150.00 may be made under the two-books-a-month subscription plan, by subscribing in advance. Each volume may then be purchased at the rate of $2.50—or $5 a month for each two volumes. Because the series is being published over a period of 75 months, the publishers cannot guarantee that printing and paper cost increases will not force them to raise the price of future volumes. However, subscribers on the standing order plan will always receive a discount of at least 15%.

Pre-Payment Savings Plan: An additional discount of $25 is allowed for full series payment of $350 in advance, making a total saving of $175.00. And, naturally, payment in full avoids the risk of being affected by any future cost increases.

INDEX: This interim index of the first thirty-two volumes issued in the series covers more than 20,000 separate entries, conveniently arranged and cross-indexed for quick, easy reference. You may obtain your copy of the index for two dollars from the source through which you subscribed to the Encyclopedia. Further indexes will follow annually.
